the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age has increased by 1.2 billion (United Nations 1999). The number of children in the world who are under 5 years of age has increased by 1.1 billion in the same period. The number of children in the world who are under 15 years of age is projected to increase by 1.5 billion by the year 2025 (United Nations 1999).

There is a growing concern that the rapid increase in the number of children in the world is leading to a decline in the quality of life for children. This is because the rapid increase in the number of children is leading to a decline in the resources available for each child. This is particularly true in developing countries, where the resources available for each child are already limited. This is a major concern for the world's leaders, who are trying to find ways to improve the quality of life for children in the world.

One of the ways to improve the quality of life for children is to provide them with access to education. Education is a key factor in improving the quality of life for children. It helps them to learn about the world around them and to develop the skills they need to live a better life. Education also helps them to become responsible citizens and to contribute to the development of their communities.

Another way to improve the quality of life for children is to provide them with access to healthcare. Healthcare is a key factor in improving the quality of life for children. It helps them to stay healthy and to live longer. Healthcare also helps them to develop the skills they need to live a better life. Healthcare also helps them to become responsible citizens and to contribute to the development of their communities.

There are many other ways to improve the quality of life for children. These include providing them with access to clean water, providing them with access to electricity, and providing them with access to housing. All of these factors are important in improving the quality of life for children. They help them to live a better life and to become responsible citizens.

The world's leaders are trying to find ways to improve the quality of life for children in the world. They are trying to find ways to provide them with access to education, healthcare, clean water, electricity, and housing. They are trying to find ways to make the world a better place for children to live. They are trying to find ways to make the world a better place for everyone to live.
