the 'information' and 'communication' fields. The 'information' field is defined as:

...the study of the nature, uses and functions of information, and the ways in which it is created, communicated, evaluated and used; and the study of the ways in which information is organised, stored, retrieved and disseminated in the various forms and media, and the ways in which these processes are influenced by social, cultural, economic and technological factors. (p. 1)

The 'communication' field is defined as:

...the study of the ways in which information is communicated, and the ways in which communication is influenced by social, cultural, economic and technological factors. (p. 1)

These definitions are not intended to be exhaustive, but they do provide a clear indication of the scope of the two fields.

The 'information' field is concerned with the study of the nature, uses and functions of information, and the ways in which it is created, communicated, evaluated and used.
