There is a growing awareness of the need to address the health and social care needs of older people. The Department of Health (2000) has set out a vision for the future of health and social care for older people, and the National Institute for Clinical Excellence (NICE) has published guidelines on the management of older people with common chronic conditions (NICE 2001). The Department of Health (2000) has also set out a number of key priorities for the future of health and social care for older people, including:

- Improving the quality of life of older people.
- Ensuring that older people have access to the services they need.
- Improving the efficiency of the health and social care system.
- Ensuring that the health and social care system is sustainable.
