There is a growing awareness of the need to develop strategies to meet the needs of the ageing population. The Department of Health (2000) has identified the need to develop a 'new paradigm' for health care, which is based on the principles of 'active ageing' and 'healthy ageing'. The new paradigm is based on the idea that people should be able to live longer, healthier lives, and that health care should be designed to support this. The new paradigm is based on the idea that people should be able to live longer, healthier lives, and that health care should be designed to support this.
