the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are undernourished has increased from 600 million to 800 million (FAO 1996).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more undernourished. First, the world's population is growing rapidly. The world population is projected to increase from 5.5 billion in 1990 to 7.5 billion in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Second, the world's population is becoming more urbanized. The world's population is projected to increase from 25% in 1990 to 50% in 2020 (UNEP 1992).

Third, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Fourth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992).

There are a number of reasons why the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports and food aid. First, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports because the world's population is becoming more urbanized. The world's population is projected to increase from 25% in 1990 to 50% in 2020 (UNEP 1992).

Second, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Third, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Fourth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Fifth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Sixth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Seventh, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Eighth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Ninth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

The world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports. The world's population is projected to increase from 10% in 1990 to 30% in 2020 (UNEP 1992). Tenth, the world's population is becoming more dependent on food aid because the world's population is becoming more dependent on food imports.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million (from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1999). The public sector has also become an important employer of people with disabilities. In 1999, 1.2 million people with disabilities were employed in the public sector, compared with 0.8 million in 1980 (Department of Health 2000).

There are a number of reasons why the public sector has become an important employer of people with disabilities. First, the public sector has a long history of employing people with disabilities. In the 19th century, the public sector was the main employer of people with disabilities, and it was responsible for providing them with education and training. In the 20th century, the public sector continued to be an important employer of people with disabilities, and it was responsible for providing them with social services and housing.

Second, the public sector has a strong commitment to equality and diversity. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to equality and diversity, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Third, the public sector has a strong commitment to social justice. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to social justice, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Fourth, the public sector has a strong commitment to the environment. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the environment, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Fifth, the public sector has a strong commitment to the arts and culture. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the arts and culture, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Sixth, the public sector has a strong commitment to the economy. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the economy, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Seventh, the public sector has a strong commitment to the health and safety of the public. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the health and safety of the public, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Eighth, the public sector has a strong commitment to the education and training of the public. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the education and training of the public, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

Ninth, the public sector has a strong commitment to the research and development of the public. The public sector is a large employer, and it is responsible for providing a wide range of services to the public. As a result, the public sector has a strong commitment to the research and development of the public, and it is responsible for ensuring that all people, regardless of their disability, have the opportunity to work for the public sector.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK with a mental health problem has increased by 50% (Mental Health Act 1983, 1993). The prevalence of mental health problems has increased in the UK, and this has led to a corresponding increase in the number of people with mental health problems who are in contact with the criminal justice system.
