the 'information' and 'communication' fields. The 'information' field is defined as:

...the study of the nature, uses and functions of information, and the ways in which it is created, communicated, evaluated and used. (p. 1)

The 'communication' field is defined as:

...the study of the nature, uses and functions of communication, and the ways in which it is created, communicated, evaluated and used. (p. 1)

These definitions are very broad and cover a wide range of topics. They are also very similar to each other, which suggests that the two fields are closely related.

The public sector is a major employer in the UK, and it is also a major source of revenue for the state.

the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million (from 2.5 million in 1980 to 4 million in 1995). The public sector has also become an important employer of women, with 50% of the public sector workforce being female in 1995 (Department of Social Security 1996).

There is a growing awareness of the need to improve the health of the public sector workforce. The Department of Social Security (1996) has identified the need to improve the health of public sector employees as a priority for the 1990s. The Department of Social Security (1996) has also identified the need to improve the health of public sector employees as a priority for the 1990s.
