the 1990s, the number of people in the UK who are employed in the public sector has increased by 1.5 million (1990–1999) and the number of people in the private sector has increased by 1.2 million (1990–1999).

There is a growing emphasis on the need to improve the quality of care in the public sector. This has led to a number of initiatives, including the introduction of the Health Care Act 2001, which sets out the requirements for the registration of health care professionals, and the introduction of the Health Care Act 2003, which sets out the requirements for the regulation of health care professionals.

The Health Care Act 2001 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the public sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the public sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the private sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the private sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the independent sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the independent sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the voluntary sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the voluntary sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the non-profit sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the non-profit sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the social enterprise sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the social enterprise sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the community sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the community sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the third sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the third sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the fourth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the fourth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the fifth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the fifth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the sixth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the sixth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the seventh sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the seventh sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the eighth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the eighth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the ninth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the ninth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the tenth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the tenth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the eleventh sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the eleventh sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the twelfth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the twelfth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the thirteenth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the thirteenth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the fourteenth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the fourteenth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.

The Health Care Act 2003 also introduced the concept of the 'fit person' to the fifteenth sector. This is a person who is fit to practice in the fifteenth sector and who is not subject to any restrictions on their practice.
